Primary Election
Tuesday, August 2nd

www.azvoterguide.com

Dear Fellow Arizonans,

Leaders across the political spectrum have called the 2022 midterm elections the most consequential midterms in decades. Since primaries often see the closest races—often with relatively few votes deciding the outcome—your participation is vital.

In this nonpartisan 2022 AZ Voter Guide, you'll find information on candidates for:

- U.S. Senate
- U.S. House of Representatives
- Arizona Statewide Offices
- Arizona State Senate and House of Representatives ‘

What you won't find is an endorsement of any candidate or party. Every candidate in the covered races was treated equally and had the same opportunity to respond to the questions.

Since 1995, the Center for Arizona Policy (CAP) has provided Grand Canyon State voters with information on candidates. If you visit CAP's azvoterguide.com in 2022, you'll find even more information, including:

- How to register to vote
- How to identify your district and where to vote
- Comments and biographical information from the candidates
- Survey responses from select city and county candidates
- And more, including access to a personalized copy of this Guide

Your vote matters in 2022. Inform yourself, share this information with others, and cast your vote on or before August 2. Thank you for caring enough about Arizona to show up and vote!

For freedom,

Cathi Herrod, Esq.

President, Center for Arizona Policy

Center for Arizona Policy is an educational and advocacy nonprofit whose mission is to protect and defend the foundational values of life, marriage and family, and religious freedom. Visit azpolicy.org or call 602-424-2525 for more information.

Helpful tips

- Identify your districts at azvoterguide.com.
- Determine which candidate deserves your vote. Answer the questions yourself in the space provided above candidate answers, then compare your answers to the candidates' answers.
- You are not required to vote for each race.
- If there are multiple seats for a particular office, you may vote for as many candidates as there are open seats, or you may vote for one candidate.

What races are covered in this printed Guide?

- U.S. Senate
- U.S. House of Representatives
- Arizona Governor
- Secretary of State
- Attorney General
- Treasurer
- Superintendent of Public Instruction
- Arizona Corporation Commission
- Arizona State Senate
- Arizona House of Representatives

Visit azvoterguide.com to:

- Identify your districts.
- Read comments and biographical information from the candidates.
- See candidate endorsements by a range of advocacy groups.
- View responses from candidates who missed the print deadline.
- Survey responses from select city and county candidates.
- Determine your voting location.
- Register to vote.
- Access a personalized copy of this Guide.

What is the August primary election about?

The August primary election decides which candidates will be on the November 8 general election ballot.

Is the 2022 AZ Voter Guide Democratic or Republican?

Neither. It is factual, impartial, and nonpartisan. Every candidate in the covered races was treated equally and had the same opportunity to respond to the questions.

Who paid for the 2022 AZ Voter Guide?

Concerned Arizonans dedicated to responsible citizenship have donated to make this publication available. No candidate or political party paid for any part of this Guide.

Are you endorsing specific candidates?

No. This Guide is a nonpartisan educational resource provided as a public service. No candidates are endorsed.

Why do some candidates not respond?

We don't know. All candidates were provided the same opportunity to respond to the survey questions. For candidates for federal office who declined to respond you'll find their publicly available positions as researched by our team. For candidates for state office, you'll find noted the candidate's contact information made available by the Arizona Secretary of State and other public sources.

Center for Arizona Policy extensively researched answers for all U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives candidates who declined to respond to the nonpartisan survey. You can access the citations for these answers on the candidate's page at azvoterguide.com.

Center for Arizona Policy (CAP) does not speak for any candidate who has not answered the AZ Voter Guide survey. However, in some cases, information relating to a candidate's position on an issue is publicly available. This information may include a candidate's voting records, public statements, campaign materials, or other credible sources. Based on this publicly available information, some candidate position statements have been determined after extensive research and are represented with "S†" (Support based on citations) or "O†" (Oppose based on citations), with a link to the source of the public statement at azvoterguide.com. If it is unclear or unknown where a candidate stands on a given issue, the answer has been intentionally left blank.
